SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA'S NEWEST MUSEUM OPENS TO THE PUBLIC ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 2007

WHO/WHAT: The MUZE0, Southern California's newest museum, a center for arts, knowledge, entertainment and culture, will engage people of all ages via the showcase of prestigious and world-class traveling exhibits.

The MUZE0 incorporates over 20,000 square feet for exhibition, meeting, education and collection storage incorporating:

- The Historic 1908 Carnegie Library, now the MUZE0 Program Building, has been newly refurbished and will display a regional history exhibition, along with hosting elements of the themed exhibition and a range of complimentary classes and activities.
- The New Exhibition Building adjacent to the Program Building – 5,000 square feet of main gallery with the capability of hosting small, medium and large exhibits. It will also feature a small theater ideal for small workshops and multimedia presentations, retail store, humidity controlled archive storage and a community reading room.
- Outside Program Plazas – Entry Plaza, Events Plaza, Program Courtyard.

Upcoming Exhibits include:

- "Imperial Rome: Discovering The Ancient Civilization" is the premiere exhibit for the MUZE0 (October 16 – January 7, 2008) and illustrates the diverse lives of Romans, from emperors to common citizens.
- Three exhibitions about Chicano art and culture affiliated with Cheech Marin's noted collection will be on display at the MUZE0 following "Imperial Rome: Discovering the Ancient Civilization." On view January 26 - April 13, 2008 will be nationally touring exhibitions "Papel Chicano: Works on Paper from the Collection of Cheech Marin," "The Chicano Collection: Prints by Modern Multiples," and "Chicano Now: American Expressions."

The MUZE0 is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization and depends upon charitable support from individuals, corporations and foundations.
